

Amendments to the Specification:

Please amend the final paragraph on page 11, at lines 32-34, with the following:

The A radical which is derived from a primary or secondary amine is generally a group of the formula $[-N^5R^6,] \text{ } \underline{-NR^5R^6}$, where the variables R^5 and R^6 are each independently defined as follows: